

Nathan Littleton - Speaker Introduction

There has been the odd occasion where I've been introduced incorrectly as Nathan Littlejohn (with a J), rather than Nathan Littleton (with a T).

Please don't make this mistake!

Our next speaker is here to show us how we can use email marketing more effectively.

He sends more than a million emails each and every year, and has worked with hundreds of businesses in the UK and around the world, helping them to get better results from their marketing.

Please welcome Nathan Littleton...
